June 2011 Night Shoot and Monthly Shoot

The website indicated that another event was being held at the Clark County Shooting Range at the same time that Nevada Rangers was hold their night shoot and monthly shoot. However, the other event was canceled and Nevada Rangers had the range to themselves. There were 18 shooters at the night shoot on June 11th. It was a perfect night for shooting and everyone had a good time. Creeker was smiling even though he had a hard time getting into the park. They closed the gate at 7:00pm and insisted that there was not a shooting event being held. He finally convinced them to let him in. Even after that, Creeker was still smiling and said he was having a fun time. Dusty Armon had the same problem but by then Fargo had the secret gate code to let him in. As shooting time drew near, Prairie Dog realized that he had left their pistols at home. He left to go get them, but was told that he could not get back in. One of the great things about cowboy shooters is that they don't mind letting a shooter use their guns. Sure enough, Prairie Dog and Curly Sue were able to use other shooters pistols and had a great time.

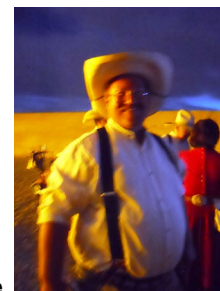

Several shooters brought their black powder and were sending flames and smoke down range. It was quite a sight, especially after the sun dropped behind the mountains. Everyone had a great time and are looking forward to another night shoot, which will be on August 13th. Come join us for a night of fun, fire and smoke.
